Homicide/001/926 ./ Xin Jesebang

On the night from the first to the second of September two men robbed 'The Bar' at around 3:30. The only three people present at the moment were Keshy McGallen the owner, Xin Jesebang the victim and Magrete Steel.

As per Dr. Steel's testimony on site, Deputy Fischer wrote into his report the following: 'Magrete Steel said "They talked about this as they came in. I came from the toilet right then and they hadn't noticed me yet. They said "We kill this guy, and all the shit will go away" and then went ahead masking this as a fucking robbery. Took the cash, scared us all shitless. But you know, Xin always is carrying. Got beaten up twice didn't want to let that happen again.'

Mister McGallen was, apparently, busy packing the cash into a bag as one robber 'noticed' Mister Jesebang's gun on his hips and told him to get his hands up even though they were already up and then shot him.

Actions taken as per jurisdiction:

Searched the premise. Secured the casing.

Ballistics report is pending.

We really need new software. It's fucking 926 and it still tries to correct shitless to shirtless. I can't work like this.
